ONTARIO BIBLE COLLEGE

25 BALLYCONNOR COURT; WILLOWDALE, ONTARIO

This book is very lovingly dedicated to the memory of

who will fondly be remembered by many.

I'm sure most would agree that some days, working or studying at school can be somewhat impersonal. Doug, however, was one individual who helped to give personality to our institution. My memories of Doug - SPORTS!! Legendaries, such as Ted Williams, John Belleville, and Mario Lemieux (but not yet Wayne Gretzky), were the real greats to Doug. My real joy was never in the topic of conversation, but with the person I was in conversation with. Doug indeed is greatly missed.

5N. has been known for wasting a precious commodity which often seems lacking in the broom closets of OBC. What substance is that you ask? TOILET PAPER!! Other than the realm of nature, 5N. has found toilet paper to be useful in redecorating our R.A's room. Unfortunately for reasons unbeknownst to us Northerners, Dianne and Lisa were not in harmony with our taste of wallpaper!

Furthermore, just when one thought all was quiet on the Northern Front, you had better watch it, or you may be "SPLATTED" with a wet toilet paper ball, especially when in vulnerable positions !!! ☺

I'm sure further creative uses for toilet paper will be found..... all for the unity of our dorm!

Four South:

A dorm filled with everyone from the solemnly strong Dave, Mark, Craig and their study habits to the wild and ludicrous antics of Rod and Cowman to the devious tricks of Steve all the way to the glamour boys Matt and Chris with the southern touch of surfatude from Cliff, Dave and Steve Heathcock. Also lurking around the halls can be found Pat playing his guitars, Andrew collecting hockey cards, Carey playing his synthesizer, Rob we're not sure what he is doing, Keirnan and Jean can be seen in their room studying -I think??- Phil, our resident chickmagnet, is usually in the stairwell talking to the girls. John and Jeff came back again just to wander, Brian is helping Kevin with his wedding plans, Andre cannot be found as he is in his army camo. Tim will be in his room talking to his girlfriend and Trev well we will just leave him out of this mess!! This whole mess of diversity did pull together when the crunch came and pulled off a big win in the Toilet Bowl Championships!! I think it can be said by all in the dorm that we have had fun this year.

A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT...

Dear Students,

In recent years my greatest encouragement has come from an obscure text lost in the details of Jeremiah's prophesy. The Lord declares, "I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Isn't that great!

The fact that He has a plan is a tremendous encouragement to me. The purpose of His plan – to prosper us – makes it even more precious. But look at the effect of His plan – it gives us hope and a future.

I commend this incredible proclamation to you for your strength and joy as you step into your future. Confidence builds. Anxiety vanishes. Expectations rise. Our land is in His hand.

What a wonderful year we have had together. Thank you for all you have contributed to making it such a blessing. I hope none of us will ever be quite the same. May the Lord do great things in and through you.

That is His plan!

Iraq lets deadline run out

In the news...

WAR DIARY

DAY 1 Wednesday, Jan. 16

Waves of allied warplanes streak north from Saudi Arabian airbases to punish Iraq for its five-month occupation of Kuwait. Witnesses hear the first bombs hitting Baghdad at about 6:30 p.m. EST (2:30 a.m. Jan. 17, Persian Gulf time). The sky over the city is soon ablaze with anti-aircraft fire.

DAY 2 Thursday, Jan. 17

Allied warplanes hammer Iraqi forces around the clock. Crude oil prices plummet while stock markets soar. Iraq attacks Israel with at least eight Scud missiles; casualties are limited. Israel threatens to retaliate. In the first 48 hours, eight allied aircraft are lost.

DAY 3 Friday, Jan. 18

Allied tanks move north toward the Kuwait border. Warplanes strike at Iraqi missile launchers. Israel considers vengeance for Iraqi attacks but does not act. U.S. President Bush extends reservists' tours up to two years and says he appreciates Israel's restraint. Stocks rise sharply again, oil prices fall.

DAY 4 Saturday, Jan. 19

Another wave of Iraqi missiles hit Israel with conventional warheads. Israel's defences are bolstered by U.S. missile batteries and crews. Allied forces neutralize Iraqi anti-aircraft units on offshore oil rigs and take 12 prisoners. Bombing targets include Iraq's elite Republican Guards in Kuwait and Iraq.

DAY 5 Sunday, Jan. 20

Iraqi Scud missiles aimed at Dhahran, Saudi Arabia, are shot down by U.S. Patriot air defence missiles. Iraqi TV shows men said to be downed allied pilots. Allied losses so far: 22 killed or missing in action, including 13 Americans; 15 warplanes reported lost.

DAY 6 Monday, Jan. 21

Iraqi TV broadcasts tape of captured American pilots making what may be forced statements. U.S. Patriot missiles thwart Iraqi missile attacks on Saudi Arabia. Iraq says it will scatter prisoners of war at strategic targets as "human shields." Oil prices rebound, stock markets drop on pessimism about the war's duration, but defence stocks rise.

DAY 7 Tuesday, Jan. 22

Six Iraqi missiles fired at Saudi Arabia are intercepted or fall in unpopulated areas, but one aimed at Israel gets through anti-missile defences. An American pilot downed in Kuwait reportedly is rescued by helicopter. Some Kuwaiti oil facilities are set ablaze by Iraqi. The relentless air war passes 10,000 total aircraft sorties. Oil prices jump sharply, financial markets retreat over anxiety about a long war and missile strikes against Israel.

Allied planes bomb Iraq in Operation Desert Storm

By Bill Taylor
TORONTO STAR

U.S., Saudi, British and Kuwaiti warplanes pounded Iraqi targets last night as the war to "liberate Kuwait" began in its full fury and Operation Desert Shield became Desert Storm.

"The liberation of Kuwait has begun," White House press secretary Marlin Fitzwater announced shortly after 7 p.m. Toronto time — about 30 minutes after television networks and The Star's Paul Watson reported the sounds of heavy bombing and anti-aircraft fire in downtown Baghdad.

ABC reported the first strike: "Anti-aircraft fire in all directions — thunderous explosions way off in the distance" and "red tracers" visible after 2:35 a.m. today Baghdad time. That was 6:35 p.m. Toronto time yesterday.

In Saudi Arabia and other gulf states, planes were reported landing, still carrying their extra fuel tanks and air-to-air missiles, indicating they had met with no resistance.

Officials in Washington are optimistic the conflict may end within days

As the first U.S. F-15E fighter-bombers took off from central Saudi Arabia around 12:50 a.m. local time (4:50 p.m. Toronto time) and streaked north, Col. Ray Davies said, "This is history in the making."

Officials in Washington were guardedly optimistic today that the conflict may be over within a few days.

Pentagon officials said the United States and its allies were in control of the Iraqi skies, alleging that massive air raids had destroyed Iraq's 700-strong air force on the ground.

"Early reports indicate that there was major damage done to the Iraqi air force. A lot of planes were caught on the ground and destroyed," one U.S. defence official said.

Other officials said numerous Iraqi Scud missiles, capable of hitting Saudi Arabia, had been destroyed by bombs and air-launched rockets.

Achieving a degree through part-time study is lengthy but rewarding because it gives you time to grow and develop your skills. Thanks to my family and friends, for their love, support and encouragement; especially my parents, my husband and our beautiful daughter, Hannah Ruth Sarah-Joy. May God continue to bless each one of us as we serve Him and others.

My 4-yr. program has turned into three of the most important years of my life. Classes, dorm life (love ya J+C!), choir (mom), M+M's, late night studying, ravine walks, and my Rock(!) have made these years special, and proved God's faithful to all his promises and loving toward all he has made. The Lord watches over all who Love Him. Psalm 145: 13, 19.

"The one vital thing is to keep obedient in spirit, then you will be ready to let the flowertime pass if he bids you, when the sun of his love has worked some more ripening. You will feel by then that to try to keep the withering blossoms would be to cramp and cripple your soul. It is a loss to keep when God says give" (E. Elliot). Friedan asked the question "Why don't people in books ever use the toilet?" It's a valid question! In all of the books I've read here at OBC, Nobody in them used the facilities. I've a lot from the books (& profs), but here's my point . . We've got the theory and its good, but as we work with and minister to people, remember that they use the bathroom 5.3 times a day. Thanx Sigma Kappa + "Brotherhood".

Yup, it's time to move on but this sure has been a good chapter in my life. It's been so full of blessings, challenges and failures that I dare not call it wasted. All I want is to move on, be obedient, and allow Christ to totally engulf this frame "Not for anything special, simply to let you know that I regard it as your own" (Jim Elliot - killed on Jan. 8, 1956). My four years at OBC have been the hardest but best of my life. The curricular and extra-curricular have been excellent preparation for future ministry. I have learnt that 1) God is warth knowing, not being understood. When comprehended He ceases to be God. 2) Knowledge is worthless until applied. 3) Prayer is powerful. My life verses: Phil 2:12-13. A NOTE FROM OUR STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT, SEAN ELLIOT...

TO FELLOW STUDENTS AND GRADUATES:

Greetings to you from your 1990/91 Student Body President and Executive. It has been a very valuable, and memorable, school year serving you. I have had the privilege to get to know a lot of new faces over the year and deepen in my relationships with others as I have led and served you. The victories, the struggles, the laughter, the suffering, the unity, the diversity, the study and the reflection have all been a significant part of the total life of our school this year. Many of us have understood a greater seriousness about the Lord, while many have been able to increase in their appreciation of others. Above all it has been our prayer that we would do "nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than ourselves" (Ph.1 2:3). "Let him who boasts, boast in the Lord!" (Jer. 9 23).

To all who will be leaving OBC for other places, may you be encouraged to find your confidence in God. Whether you enter full-time ministry, work, further school or other avenues, be sure to keep strong in the Lord and in the might of His power. "For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus." (Ph.1 1:6). So whatever you do following your time here at OBC, make the most of every opportunity to see His name glorified.

Enjoy your summer, keep your mind alert and bring every thought captive to the obedience of Christ.

In service to Christ and you,

Sean Elliot
